Sona Nekvapilová

Has participated in the training

STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT

Carried out by In Dialogue Netherlands

Place and duration of the course:

Copenhagen, Denmark, 4th to the 8th of April 2016, 5 days with approx. 29 hours.

The training contained the following elements:

- Giving an understanding of how to create management commitment as well as involvement of the wider system in complex realities with many stakes
- Asking the right questions to a diverse number of people
- Exploring methods to structure and plan open-ended processes ... and the confidence to facilitate them even when things do not turn out as planned
- Developing the ability to create clarity and set the framework, ensuring that change processes lead towards organisational goals
- Having a possibility to work on a tailor-made plan that fits the actual needs/visions (selecting the right focus, involving stakeholders, planning the process and the follow-up)
- Having an opportunity to receive coaching on your exact challenges in relation to implementing ideas at home
